UEXCEL[®]
Turn knowledge into credit.

WHAT TYPE OF STUDENT BENEFITS FROM TAKING A UEXCEL EXAM?

High school students can demonstrate academic preparation at the post-secondary level, setting themselves apart from other applicants and proving they have college-level knowledge.

International students can take a UExcel exam before leaving their home country to demonstrate their ability to succeed at a US-based university.

Home-schooled students can validate the knowledge they have acquired and prove they are capable of college-level work.

Military personnel can meet general education requirements while on active service by taking a UExcel exam at or near their military installation.

Adult learners can save money on college tuition, bypass general education requirements, and validate knowledge they have previously acquired.

SAVE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ON TUITION AND EARN ACADEMIC CREDIT FOR SUBJECTS YOU ALREADY KNOW.

UExcel is a credit-by-examination program that gives you the chance to turn your knowledge into credit.

An alliance between Pearson and Excelsior College, UExcel can help you earn academic credit by taking computer-based examinations in popular lower-level subject areas. These exams are delivered at thousands of Pearson VUE test centers around the globe, so you can schedule and test at your convenience.

UExcel examinations feature immediate scoring and grading, and are ideal for students who are interested in accelerating the completion of their degree or reducing the overall cost of tuition.

WHY UEXCEL?

Participating in the UExcel credit-by-examination program provides you with many unique advantages:

- Save Money and Time – UExcel can help you meet degree requirements while saving thousands of dollars on tuition.
- ACE CREDIT Evaluated – The American Council on Education’s College Credit Recommendation Service (ACE CREDIT) has evaluated and made college credit recommendations for UExcel examinations.
- Prove You are Prepared – UExcel allows you to market yourself to institutions by demonstrating your ability to master college or university coursework.
- Global Reach – UExcel exams are available at thousands of Pearson VUE test centers around the world, making them convenient and affordable for everyone.
- Immediate Test Results – You will receive immediate test results after completing an exam and unlike other credit-by-examination programs, UExcel reports your results with a letter grade and the amount of academic credit earned on an official transcript from Excelsior College, an accredited institution.
- No Hidden Costs – UExcel exam fees are all-inclusive. There are no hidden administration costs, such as a “seat” fee.
- Preparation Resources – UExcel offers study resources, including practice exams that mirror the actual exam content and computerized format, recommended textbooks, online tutorials and free content guides. Visit www.UExcelTest.com/resources for a complete list of resources.

The American Council on Education’s College Credit Recommendation Service (ACE CREDIT) has evaluated and made college credit recommendations for UExcel examinations.

WHAT EXAMS ARE OFFERED AND HOW MUCH DO THEY COST?

You can earn three or more credits for a single fee of $85. UExcel exams are offered in a variety of popular lower-level subjects, including:

- Calculus
- College Writing
- Introduction to Psychology
- Physics
- Political Science
- Statistics

Additional exams are in development. Visit www.UExcelTest.com/exams for a complete list of available exams.

Thousands of colleges and universities accept credit-by-examination.

Thousands of colleges and universities accept credit-by-examination as transfer credit, to waive lower-level courses or to fulfill admission requirements. Check with the college or university where you wish to enroll to request that they evaluate and accept UExcel exams. If your college or university would like more information about the ACE CREDIT-evaluated UExcel examination series, they may visit www.UExcelTest.com, contact UExcel at 1-800-896-1426 or email an inquiry to colleges@uexceltest.com.
